

Melaleuca leucadendra

Fine Leafed Paperbark; Weeping Paperbark

Description

Hardy native tree with bright green leaves, papery bark and creamy pale yellow flowers in spring/summer

Size

Large native tree

Maximum height: 10 to 14 metres

Maximum spread: 8 to 10 metres

Features

- Profuse white flowers in spring/summer
- Attractive weeping foliage

Uses

- Coastal tolerant
- Feature tree for wide avenues
- Bird attracting

Preferred conditions

Open to sunny position. Tolerates poor soils.

Prefers moisture

Availability

Specialist native nurseries.

